PROFILE

Hong's vast experience in dispute resolution pertaining to land matters has seen him in advisory service to financial institutions and corporations. He regularly appears as leading counsel with trial and appellate court experience and is actively involved in all levels of Malaysian courts instructed on a range of briefs: land disputes, land acquisitions, contractual and commercial disputes, industrial relations disputes, construction and building disputes.

His active involvement in all levels of Malaysian Courts has equipped him to be a counsel with immense knowledge and professionalism.

Confident and in search of a better platform for him to pursue his determination in providing quality service, he commenced his own practice in partnership with Abdul Halim bin Abdul Manaf as Halim Hong which subsequently becomes Halim Hong & Quek as we know today.
