Dear Readers,

As the pandemic continues spreading across the globe, we see an increase in newly reported cases and new recorded deaths every passing day. However, we need to keep reminding ourselves that no matter how much falls upon us, we must keep plowing ahead. Ultimately, the greatest lesson that Covid-19 can teach us all is that we are all in this together. Hence, as the going gets tough, we must get stronger and more resilient. In the face of adversity, we have a choice: We can be bitter or we can be better. At HHQ and HLP, we choose to be better. With that, we bring to you this edition where we have for the first time, 5 articles to share with you instead of our usual 4!

The first article in this edition highlights the Federal Court’s recent decision in Zung Zang Trading wherein the issue which required determination was whether the authority of a corporate representative of a sole corporate member includes the authority to attend meetings and whether it also extends to the requisitioning of a members’ meeting.

The second article is in respect of digital moneylending loans in Malaysia and the recent guidelines issued which govern how it would operate.

The third article deals with the tort of conspiracy to injure and it explains how the law protects one from being a victim of such a tort.

Our fourth article is a case update on a recent decision of the Malaysian High Court that dealt with the issue of direct payments as set out in Section 30 of the Construction Industry Payment and Adjudication Act 2012.

Last not but least, we have our final article which is in essence single-paged FAQ on the Home Ownership Campaign program in Malaysia.

Finally, our Inside Out section in this edition covers some of our future events that you may be interested to join and also highlights our recent activities during the month of June.

Happy reading and stay safe everyone!

Note from the Editorial Team

Dear Readers,

As the pandemic continues spreading across the globe, we see an increase in newly reported cases and new recorded deaths every passing day. However, we need to keep reminding ourselves that no matter how much falls upon us, we must keep plowing ahead. Ultimately, the greatest lesson that Covid-19 can teach us all is that we are all in this together. Hence, as the going gets tough, we must get stronger and more resilient. In the face of adversity, we have a choice: We can be bitter or we can be better. At HHQ and HLP, we choose to be better. With that, we bring to you this edition where we have for the first time, 5 articles to share with you instead of our usual 4!

The first article in this edition highlights the Federal Court’s recent decision in Zung Zang Trading wherein the issue which required determination was whether the authority of a corporate representative of a sole corporate member includes the authority to attend meetings and whether it also extends to the requisitioning of a members’ meeting.

The second article is in respect of digital moneylending loans in Malaysia and the recent guidelines issued which govern how it would operate.

The third article deals with the tort of conspiracy to injure and it explains how the law protects one from being a victim of such a tort.

Our fourth article is a case update on a recent decision of the Malaysian High Court that dealt with the issue of direct payments as set out in Section 30 of the Construction Industry Payment and Adjudication Act 2012.

Last not but least, we have our final article which is in essence single-paged FAQ on the Home Ownership Campaign program in Malaysia.

Finally, our Inside Out section in this edition covers some of our future events that you may be interested to join and also highlights our recent activities during the month of June.

Happy reading and stay safe everyone!