Hui Wen is an Associate at HHQ, with experience in real estate and banking and finance matters.

She began her legal career in the area of real estate, where she gained experience in handling a broad range of matters relating to developer projects, land-related transactions and property development. She subsequently gained in-house experience in banking and finance, where she was involved in drafting and negotiating financing documentation, as well as advising on matters relating to security and collateral.

With experience gained from both private practice and an in-house environment, Hui Wen brings a practical and commercially focused approach to her work, with an emphasis on providing clear and effective legal solutions to clients.
