Zi Xin is an Associate based in the Penang office, with a focus on Real Estate and Project Development.

She advises property developers on a wide range of real estate matters. Her experience includes assisting in project development transactions and managing matters from the preparation of documentation through to completion.

She regularly handles matters relating to Memorandum of Transfer, perfection of transfer, and perfection of charge for developer projects. She works closely with developers, purchasers, financiers, and relevant authorities to facilitate the smooth completion of property transactions and post-completion processes.

Her practice encompasses various aspects of project development, enabling her to provide practical and commercially focused legal support throughout the development and conveyancing process.
